SHAW DIRECT EXPANDS CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING New French programming and packages launch on Shaw Direct

CALGARY, ALBERTA (April 1, 2010) – Educational adventures come to Shaw Direct with the launch of Yoopa on Thursday, April 1, 2010.

The Canadian French language network will provide young children and their parents with family favourites like Monkey See Monkey Do, Angelina Ballerina, Bert & Ernie's Great Adventure, Animal Stories, and Blue's Clue to name a few.

Viewers can also catch Théo, a dramatic series featuring puppets and live action, premiering in May on Yoopa. Théo's companion series, T'es où Théo, premieres on August 16.

"Shaw is proud to offer new French programming to our customers across the country," said Peter Bissonnette, President, Shaw Communications Inc. "We are delighted to provide our younger viewers with exceptional programming like the Yoopa network."

Three new packages are also available to Shaw Direct customers beginning April 1, 2010 from only $19.99 per month. The new packages, Le Classique, Populaire Français and Parfait Bilingue Extra, provide Shaw Direct's French and bilingual customers with the flexibility to choose the programming package that best meets their viewing needs.

Yoopa is available to Shaw Direct customers on channel 772 as a free preview until May 31, and will be offered as part of the new Le Classique package for $19.99 per month, or with the French Essentials package for only $32.99 per month.
